

BEFORE THE HIGH COURT OF GUJARAT AT AHMEDABAD.

SPECIAL CIVIL APPLICATION NOS.7421 OF 1996

AND 7423 OF 1996 TO 7427 OF 1996.

Appearance:-

Mr. M.C. Bhatt, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. T.H. Sompura, A.G.P. instructed by H.H. Patel,
Solicitors for the Respondents.

COMMON ORAL ORDER:-

Mr. Bhatt, learned Advocate for the petitioner states that the respondent no.1 Vadodara Urban Development Authority had prepared original development plan which had come into force with effect from 21-9-1984 whereby the disputed land was reserved for the respondent no.1 Authority. Thereafter, the respondent no.1 Authority has prepared a revised development plan and the same is sanctioned by the Government of Gujarat. The revised development plan has come into force with effect from 26-11-1996. As per the revised development plan, the disputed land is released from reservation. Therefore, the petition does not survive. In view of this development, Mr. Bhatt seeks permission to withdraw this petition unconditionally. Permission is granted. The petition stands disposed of as withdrawn, with no order as to costs. Notice in each of the matters is discharged.

Pursis along with the Zonal Certificate is ordered to be placed on record of each of the matters.

Date:-12-3-1997. (R.R. Jain, J.)
